Order Form Strawberry Production Guide For the Northeast, Midwest, and Eastern Canada

The Strawberry Production Guide was written by 16 experts representing eight universities. Dr. Marvin Pritts, Horticulturist from Cornell University, and David Handley, Extension Horticulturist from the University of Maine, were the technical editors. Published by the Northeast Regional Agricultural Engineering Services (now known as the Natural Resource, Agricultural, and Engineering Service - NRAES) it was reviewed by growers, industry leaders, researchers, extension professionals, and others. It is intended as a comprehensive resource for both novice and experienced strawberry growers in northeastern North America.

It is available directly from NASGA at $51 per copy , including shipping & handling.
